Dear Nikolai and Stephanie,

Your membership to the Hiller Aviation Museum expires this month. Please take this opportunity to renew at the FAMILY Membership Level or higher by visiting www.hiller.org/member or completing and mailing the enclosed application. Sustaining memberships that auto renew annually at a 10% discount are also now available. Renew today and prepare to again enjoy your favorite aviation experiences. Renewing in advance of your next visit will make your museum entry as expeditious as possible.

Museum Membership is a fantastic way to experience the resources of the Hiller Aviation Museum on a regular basis. With the support of members like you, the museum will continue to provide activities that will educate and entertain you throughout the year! Stay tuned to our website, www.hiller.org, for the latest information about upcoming activities, events, and programs.

Thank you in advance for your support, for being an essential part of the Hiller Aviation Museum community, for helping to ensure that the museum remains the Bay Area's premier source for aviation history and science education, and inspiring future generations. Your membership support provides a sustainable source of revenue to the museum, assists in our mission of aviation and science education, and is greatly appreciated.

We look forward to you enjoying visits throughout the year! Please be well and keep looking up!

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Bass
President & CEO
