Conditions and notices

Any receipt of payment made will be void if the check used to make the payment is dishonored for any reason. In the event that the check used for payment is dishonored, the amount originally credited to your account will be voided and you will be notified of this action. No marketing representative or representative of the company, other than an officer specified in the policy contract, has any authority to change, waive or extend any terms or conditions of the policy.

About your policy

If a premium is not paid when due or by the end of the specified grace period your policy, if elected, will exercise your non forfeiture option, lapse or terminate. Please refer to your policy contract for additional information regarding your life insurance policy and the guarantees it provides.
